Announcement of the Cancellation of the ISINs for Non-Thai Nationality securities owner

In compliance with the Depository Practice regarding the foreign holding limitation, Thailand Securities Depository Company Limited (TSD), as the National Numbering Agency, has assigned the ISINs for all securities types as the following assignment rule:

- 1 ISIN for the securities which belong to the person of Thai nationality, or ISIN (local)
- 1 ISIN for the securities which belong to the person of non-Thai nationality, or ISIN (foreign)

With effective on October 22, 2007, TSD shall cancel all the ISINs (foreign) assigned for the securities of no foreign holding limitation such as debentures, unit trusts, warrants, transferable subscription rights and depository receipts, etc.. Accordingly, the ISINs (local) of such securities shall be applied to the securities holdings by the person of non-Thai nationality. For the securities having limitation on foreign holding (i.e. common stocks and preferred stocks), two ISINs (local and foreign) shall be assigned as the above assignment rule.
